

Circle Golf News

September 19, 2009

Circle Boys Win TFA Invitational, Girls and JV Shoot Season Low Scores

Circle Christian's Boys Varsity team traveled to Grand Cypress to participate in the TFA Invitational, which was played on "The New Course," a links style course patterned after Saint Andrews GC. Circle's team depth showed up as four players shot rounds of 77 or better, as the team won its first tournament of the season. Circle was led by Drew Takacs (2013) and Hayden Squadrito (2011) who finished in a tie for 3rd place overall with their score of even par 72. Jason Zhou of L.H.P. and Reed Berry of Lake Brantley tied with the low round 70. Circle's season record now moves to 25-7.

Team Scores:

Circle Christian	296
Lake Highland Prep	308
Lake Brantley	310
The First Academy	313
Dr Phillips	315
Windermere Prep	319
Lake Mary Prep	320
Bishop Moore	321
Sebring High	328
Foundation Academy	345

Circle Scores:

Hayden Squadrito	72
Drew Takacs	72
Ryan Stovash	75
Josh Tipton	77
William Williams	87

Next up will be the prestigious 36 hole Qdoba Tournament of Champions Sept 25 and 26 at Providence CC in Davenport, FL.

Coach, Josh, Hayden, Ryan, Drew, and Will celebrating win

Circle Girls hosted Olympia High on Wednesday at Lake Orlando GC. The team evened its season record at 2-2 as they won the event 164 – 196. Sierra Brooks (2016) shot the teams first under par round of the season (since this is the first season this is the first under par round in school history). Abbey Carlson (2016) followed with a round of 39. Mia Semann led Olympia with her score of 43. The team next travels to Sebring on Monday to participate in the 18 hole Hawkins –Crutchfield Invitational. Here is the balance of the scores:

Sierra Brooks 35, Abbey Carlson 38, Dree Fausnaugh 41, Christy Stives 50, Kelsey Leahy 55, Lindsey Leahy 61

 The Orlando Sentinel's Super 6 rankings come out for the first time this season. Circle' Boys and Girls were both ranked 4th in this initial ranking. Congratulations go out to both teams. *****

Circle's JV hosted Trinity Prep's JV at Lake Orlando coming away with a win, and shooting its low score of the season 156 – 175. Circle was led by its young guns, as Andrew Silverman (2016), a 6th grade student led all scoring with a one over par 37. He was followed by Zach Hoskins (2015) with a 38 and Chase Ibbotson (2016) with a round of 39. The balance of the scoring was Austin Bos 42, Richie Hicks 44, and Brehnden Daly 50. Parker Manson played ahead of the match and finished with a 46. The season record now moves to 4-1. The team will also travel to Sebring on Monday to participate in H.-C. Invitational.

circlegolf@yahoo.com