

Circle Golf News

September 27, 2009

Circle Boys Varsity and JV have a big tournament weekend

Circle Christian's Boys Varsity hosted the Qdoba Tournament of Champions at the 6,950 yard Providence Golf Club on Friday and Saturday. The tournament brings the top finishers from the prior year's State Championships in both the 1A (small school) and 2A (large school) divisions for a two day 36 hole test that is a ranked tournament by Jr. Golf Scoreboard.

There was outstanding play as The Benjamin School of West Palm won with a team score of 6 under par. Individually Matt Ceravalo (2011) led all scorers with a two day total of 4 under par. He was followed closely by Joey Petronio (2011) with his 3 under par finish. Circle Christian's Hayden Squadrito (2011) turned in the tournament's low round on the second day with a 4 under par 68 which left him in third place tie at 2 under par two day total. The details of all scoring are on the attached sheet.

Hayden Squadrito

Zach and JV celebrate their win

The JV returned to Winter Park CC to defend last year's tournament win, and came home successful again. The team was led by Zach Hoskins (2015) who had the low score of the tournament with a 1 under par 71. Teammate Chase Ibbotson (2016) shot his low score of the season with a 1 over par 73 for a 3rd place finish, and Andrew Silverman (2016) finished in 5th place with his score of 77. Circle rounded out scoring with Richie Hicks (8th place) score of 81, and Austin Bos (15th place) 85. The team score of 298 gave the school a 13 stroke margin of victory. Here are the team scores:

Circle 298 / Olympia High 311 / Trinity Prep 324 / Lake Highland 340 / TFA 355 / Lake Mary High 366 / Lake Mary Prep 437