

Circle Christian School - Fee Structure for 2010-2011

Circle is a private school that offers a variety of programs and services to its students. These services fall into two categories:

1. Those services which are universally provided to all students
2. Those elective, supplemental opportunities which are provided only to those students who elect to participate.

There are two corresponding sets of fees. The Enrollment Fees apply to all students. The Participation Fees apply to those students who participate in supplemental opportunities. The fee structure is outlined below.
